Public can review math materials under consideration for GESD schools

GLENDALE, Ariz. — The Glendale Elementary School District will adopt new mathematics textbooks and materials for the 2012-13 school year, and the public is invited to review those under consideration and leave comments through Feb. 10, 2012.

The textbooks and materials under consideration conform and align to the Common Core, a new set of academic standards that schools across Arizona will implement during the 2012-13 school year. The textbooks and materials under consideration were selected by a committee of GESD teachers and District administrators, and are for students in grades kindergarten through eight. Comment cards are provided.

Anyone wishing to review the textbooks and materials can do so in the lobby of the GESD District Office, 7301 N. 58th Ave. Office hours are from 7:30 a.m. — 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. During holidays the District Office will be closed from Dec. 23 — Jan. 6. The offices will re-open on Monday, Jan. 9. The District Office will also be closed on Jan. 16 in observation of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.
